KCC Chairman Visits Traditional Market and Welfare Facility to Celebrate Chuseok

KCC Chairman Kyung-jae Lee visited Gwanggo Traditional Market (Icheon, Gyeonggi Province) on September 16, 2013 and greeted the merchants in the market who were anticipating Chuseok, the biggest holiday in the country, on September 19. The chairman then visited Jura ("Give") Welfare Facility for the Severely Disabled in the city and delivered what he purchased in the traditional market including rice and fruit to the facility. He shared valuable moments with the underprivileged in the facility in anticipation of Chuseok, the happiest day of the year.
